

Your contribution will ensure that Juneau's children in need will experience an enriching summer attending the Sitka Fine Arts Camp.

DETAILS:

Friends,

Please join in me in helping children from Juneau attend Sitka Fine Arts Camp this summer.

Thanks to the Crossett Fund, we have $2000 available to help provide need-based scholarships for Juneau children, provided the community of Juneau matches that $2000.

Reuben E. Crossett owned and operated the Pioneer Bar in Ketchikan Alaska. Never married and with no children of his own, he supported young people in a variety of ways. In 1985, Rube died, leaving a large portion of his estate to Children's Hospital and Regional Medical Center in Seattle, directing that the fund be used to help children lead healthy lives. For the past two years, the fund provided scholarships for local children to attend Sitka Fine Arts Camp with matching funds from the community.

Please help us do that again this year with a small contribution toward the match for this scholarship. Help us give a child a chance at this wonderful summertime experience.

Thank you,

Nancy DeCherney

GET INVOLVED!

Membership is an easy, enjoyable way to get involved and to support JAHC's important work throughout the community. As the formal arts agency for the Capital City, JAHC presents a Performing Arts and Cultural Concert Series, a Student Outreach Series, summer Concerts in the Park, offers scholarships and grants, curates monthly exhibits in the JAHC gallery, administers arts-in-education programs for youth, and serves as a supporter and a resource for artists and arts organizations in Juneau.

Whether you are interested in an individual membership, one for your whole family, or a gift for someone, your membership helps JAHC offer quality experiences in culture and art.
